FROM THE STONE AGE TO 1066 ENHANCING SUBJECT KNOWLEDGE AT KS2

This practical series of three webinars will give an academic overview of KS2 Primary History content relating to British History from the Stone Age to 1066, enhancing subject knowledge so that the period can be taught in greater depth in line with NC and OFSTED expectations. At the same time, the content will be presented as medium-term plans organised rigorous historical enquiry questions relating to the second-order concepts of disciplinary knowledge such as cause and consequence. Suggestions for pupil activities will also be given.

The three webinars are:
