

DELIVERING EFFECTIVE RELATIONSHIP, SEX AND HEALTH EDUCATION IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS

In this programme delegates will consider how to develop their whole school RSHE curriculum as part of the updated DfE statutory curriculum. Delegates will complete themed sessions exploring both policy and practice to ensure as a practitioner they are confident in leading on inclusive and effective RSHE in their own settings.

The programme will also support schools in ensuring their RSHE curriculum as part of their PSHE programme is in line with the new Ofsted inspection framework. There will also be a opportunity to explore how the RSHE curriculum supports schools in responding to the Ofsted review into sexual abuse in schools.

These sessions will take place on the dates below:

1. Understanding the new RSHE and Health Statutory Policy, whole school approaches to PSHE and planning SOW.

Tuesday 16th November 2021 4:00 - 6:00pm

2. Inclusive RSHE - Sharing inclusive and effective practice which meets the needs of pupils and parents. Considering SEND pupils, LGBT pupils and the role of ethnicity in the curriculum.

Tuesday 30th November 2021 4:00 - 6:00pm

3. Reviewing RSHE provision and Assessment and forward planning

Tuesday 14th December 2021 4:00 - 6:00pm

at Lampton School, Lampton Avenue, Hounslow TW3 4EP

Faye Jones is a Health Improvement Officer specialising in PSHE and RSHE for a Local Authority. She supports schools with all elements of PSHE and RSHE from planning and delivery to monitoring and training. Her career began at Lampton school where she was Subject Leader for PSHE and RSHE and where she developed and implemented the whole school response to RSHE and collaborated on the school's response to the Ofsted review into sexual abuse in schools. Faye has recently completed a Master of Research into the inclusive implementation of the RSHE curriculum in secondary schools focusing on how to engage parents and pupils holistically to ensure the curriculum is adequately meeting the community's needs.
