

List of graphic novels recommended by Charlotte in the session

El Deafo – Cece Bell – now on Apple TV
Meanwhile – Pick any Path – Jason Shiga
Can I Build Another Me? – Shinsuke Yoshitake (Japan)
Akissi – Tales of Mischief – Marguerite Abouet (Ivory Coast)
Narwhal – The Unicorn of the Sea – Ben Clanton
Hilda – Luke Pearson – graphic novel series, also now on NETFLIX
Asterix Comic Book Series – Albert Uderzo, René Goscinny, Jean-Yves Ferri
TinTin Comic Book Series – Hergé
Amulet Series – Kazu Kibuishi – Year 4, 5 & 6
Bone Comic Book Series – Jeff Smith
My Neighbour Totoro – Tsugiko Kubo – from the famous Studio Ghibli
Graphic Universe: Atalanta – Justine & Ron Fontes, Thomas Yeates
Ghosts – Raina Telgemeier
Small Things – Mel Tregonning – deals with anxiety
The Lost Thing – Shaun Tan
The Arrival – Shaun Tan
The Mediterranean – Armin Greder
The Island – Armin Greder
Marvel Universe Comic Book Series – Read before you give Star Wars Comic Book Series – Read before you give
The Crossover – Kwame Alexander
ZOOM – Istvan Banyai – wordless book
Journey Trilogy – Aaron Becker – wordless book
Irena – Jean-David Morvan
Illegal – Eion Colfer
The Breadwinner – Deborah Ellis – also an award-winning film
The Lumberjanes – Noelle Stevenson
Pumpkin Heads – Rainbow Rowell
The Golden Compass – Phillip Pullman
The Adventures of Jon Blake – Phillip Pullman
Percy Jackson – Rick Riordan
Suffragette – Sally Heathcote – Read before you give Shackleton – Nick Bertozzi
King Arthur – Usborne Graphic Legends

Be careful ...

Some graphic novels can make for difficult class conversations so make sure they're appropriate for the age group.

Books like The Hobbit by JRR Tolkien, Animal Farm by George Orwell – is it age/time appropriate?