

Effective Assessment in PSHE education – KS1&2

Useful reading:

PSHE Association: Handling complex issues safely in the PSHE education classroom

This short guidance document offers tips on how to create and maintain a safe classroom environment. It includes how to implement ground rules, discuss starting points, consider distancing techniques and more.

PSHE Association: Ask A Subject Specialist

Episode 1 has a short discussion on using assessment in class as well as during periods of remote learning

AYPH Association for Young People's Health:

The AYPH work to raise the profile of young people's health needs so that services can better meet their needs, includes an annual key data report, which brings together evidence-based information in an accessible format.